Yes this does need to be addressed because we had this same incident in my second period today.

I received a call from her mom about 20 min. ago and she was reporting acts of bullying against [REDACTED] by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] which began last week. Those acts are mainly occurring in PE but I know today it spilled over into English class and then lunch I believe with [REDACTED] getting involved in defending [REDACTED] which I think nearly resulted in a fight. I went and spoke with [REDACTED] as soon as I finished the conversation with mom and she reported [REDACTED] had just made another comment (bitch) to her not long after PE began today. Since I haven't witnessed any of this, I hesitated to put it in educator handbook, but I feel like someone needs to address this. I knew several parties were involved already so I wanted to put this out there first to everyone to see who wants to take the lead with this. Thanks so much!
